DEFENDANT: Bryan Harris CASE NUMBER: 1:15cr108

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

- 1) The defendant must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, or any state sex offender registration agency in which the defendant resides, works or is a student.
- 2) The defendant must participate in sex offender treatment in a program approved by the probation officer, to include a sex offender risk assessment, psychosexual evaluation or other evaluation as needed. The defendant must follow the rules and regulations of the sex offender treatment program as implemented by the probation officer. The defendant must sign all necessary authorization forms to release confidential information so that treatment providers, probation officers, polygraph examiners, and others as necessary, can communicate openly about the defendant throughout the course of treatment. The defendant shall pay for the cost of treatment to the extent he is able as determined by the probation officer.
- 3) The defendant must submit to periodic polygraph testing at the direction and discretion of the probation officer to ensure compliance with the requirements of his supervision and of his treatment program. The defendant shall be responsible for the cost of polygraph exams in an amount based on ability to pay determined by the probation officer.
- 4) The defendant must refrain from possessing or viewing any sexually explicit material.
- 5) The defendant's residence and employment must be approved in advance by the probation officer and in compliance with state and local law.
- 6) The defendant must have no contact with anyone under the age of 18 without prior written approval by the probation officer. This shall include no contact through letters, communication devices, audio or visual devices, visits, or social networking sites. This provision does not encompass persons under the age of 18 such as ticket vendors, cashiers, waiters, etc. with whom the defendant must deal with to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services.
- 7) The defendant must not frequent places where persons under the age of 18 congregate, such as playgrounds, arcades, amusement parks, recreation parks, sporting events, shopping malls, swimming pools, etc., without prior approval of the probation officer.
- 8) The defendant must not knowingly enter any bars, taverns, or places where alcohol is served as the primary commodity, without first obtaining permission of the probation officer.
- 9) The defendant is required to install software to monitor computer activities on any computer the defendant is authorized to use at the defendant's expense. The monitoring software may record all activity on the defendant's computer, including the capturing of keystrokes, application information, internet use history, email correspondence, and chat conversations. The monitoring software will be checked on a random basis. The defendant shall have no expectations of privacy regarding computer use or information stored on the computer and understands and agrees that information gathered by said software may be used against the defendant in subsequent court actions regarding the defendant's computer use and conditions of supervision. The defendant is prohibited from attempting to remove, tamper with, or alter/circumvent the monitoring software in any way. Furthermore, the defendant must comply with the rules set forth in the computer monitoring participation agreement.
- 10) The defendant must submit and/or surrender any media device to which he has access and/or control, to a search based on reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. A media device is defined as, but not limited to, any device which can access the internet, storing audio/video/image files, text, or other forms of electronic communication.
